Crowds Swarm Synagogue For Lord Reading Funeral

ENGLAND'S GREATEST JEW DIES

LONDON (Spl.)—England mourned the death of its greatest Jew when crowds swarmed the Great Synagogue here Thursday at services for Lord Reading, the son of the Jewish merchant who attained nearly every important post that it is in the power of Great Britain to bestow.

Lord Reading's body, at his wish, was cremated Wednesday.

Death came to Lord Reading after he had survived an attack of sickness several months ago. He contracted a chill about the middle of the month, but an official statement said he died of heart failure.

Disgusted from seeking his fortune in America, Lord Reading rose to the second position in the empire, viceroy to India. Among the positions he held were ambassador to the United States, solicitor general, lord chief justice of England, and foreign minister.

Lord Reading was born Rufus Daniel Isaacs, the son of a London merchant. At 14 he ran away to sea and remained for two years. His education was acquired in the public schools at the University of London, in Brussels and Hanover. He was called to the bar when he was twenty-seven years old, and his rise was meteoric. In 1904 he won his first seat in Parliament.

Viscount Erleight, son of Lord Reading by his first marriage, succeeds to the title. He is intensely interested in Jewish affairs, and well-liked by the Jewish community in England.

TOO OLD TO LEAVE

BERLIN (JTA)—More than half of the Jews in Germany are too old to emigrate, according to the Statistical Year Book for the German Reich of 1935.

The majority of the 49,9,682 Jews in Germany, the book states, are between the ages of 25 and 65. 100,210 are between the ages of 25 and 45, and 145,546 are between the ages of 45 and 65. Thus, something less than 50 per cent of the German Jews are of emigratable age, according to the volume.

PARADE AGAINST GAMES

PARIS (JTA)—Mounting sentiment against holding of the Olympic Games in Berlin reached a climax during a soccer match at Vincennes Stadium near here when a group of sportsmen paraded around the field in an anti-Berlin demonstration.

Vie For Crown

NEW YORK (Spl.)—Fighting for honors for the outstanding theatrical performance of 1935 are Alla Nazimova, left top, Blanche Gladstone and Stella Adler, below. Mme. Nazimova, Jewish actress, is starring as Mrs. Alving in the revival of Ibsen's "Ghosts." Blanche Gladstone and Stella Adler are co-stars of Clifford Odets' "Paradise Lost."

The vehicles in which these stars appear are only passably interesting, but their acting is superb. All critics joined in praising their efforts.

Growth Rapid

JERUSALEM (Spl.)—The first tree of the Jubilee Forest, in honor of the 25th anniversary of the reign of King George V, was planted in the Valley of Jerzeel two weeks ago, but already a number of additional trees have been planted in what it is hoped will become one of the largest forests in the Holy Land.

The tree shown above as it was being uprooted at the Royal Nurseries at Windsor Great Park, was the gift of the king. It is a Cypress Orientalis, and was the only one of its kind at Great Park.

Perplexed By Music Problem

NEW YORK (Spl.)—The music members of the American Society of three famous Jewish composers of Composers which plans to censors may be kept from the airtime to broadcast music written waves if litigation over royalties under its aegis, but they also work between eight music firms and for Warner Brothers, owners of the American Society of Com—the eight competing firms which posers is not settled soon threaten to ban its music for broadcasting purposes. The trio, Irving Berlin, Jerome Berlin, Kern and Romberg are Kern and Sigmund Romberg, are as much up in the air as anybody.

3 Jewish Students Win England School Trip

Get Rhodes Scholarships

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (Spl.)—Three of the thirty-two students selected from American universities for Rhodes Scholarships are Jewish, it was reported here by the office of the American secretary to the Rhodes' trustees.

The three are Philip M. Kaiser, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin; Walter Rostow, of New Haven, a student at Yale, and Deric Nusbaum, of Santa Fe, N. M., from Harvard. Three other Jewish candidates failed to make the high standards set for the scholarships. Kaiser, Rostow and Nusbaum will spend either two or three years at Oxford University with all expenses paid. Kaiser is a former student at Etz Chaim Yeshiva in Brooklyn.

Avert Panic In Shul Fire

BOSTON, Mass. (Spl.)—While firemen battled flames in the basement, the Chanukah celebration in Temple Mishkan Tefila of the Brotherhoods of Boston was carried through to completion, although the audience was not aware of the blaze.

When the fire broke out firemen were called and valiantly battled to keep the flames under control. Meanwhile, the committee in charge of the celebration which included all of the brotherhoods of Greater Boston, explained to the audience that water in the boiler room was causing the billows of smoke which filled the auditorium. Firemen here gave credit to the presence of mind of the Temple leaders for averting what might have been a panic.

Alert Detroit Editor Foils Notorious Anti-Semite

DETROIT, Mich. (Spl.)—Informed by the editor of the Detroit Jewish Chronicle of a trick resort to by an anti-Semitic who links his name with an anti-Jewish campaign, Governor Harold G. Hoffman of New Jersey has ordered that a stop be put to this practice.

Governor Hoffman made the following statement to Philip Slomovitz, editor of the Chronicle: "I am today asking Edward J. Smythe, executive member of the Association of Republican Clubs, to forthwith cease the distribution of this literature."

"I have informed him that I gave no authorization of the 'Republican Leader' circular with the letter addressed to Father Coughlin attached thereto. Unintentionally or otherwise, as you have pointed out, this injects me into a matter concerning diversions of opinion of religious and racial nature."

The literature distributed by Edward J. Smythe, to which Governor Hoffman took exception, was circulated on the official stationery of the "Association of Republican Clubs, Inc.," with headquarters at 221 West 57th Street, New York. The stationery states that the "Republican Leader" is the organization's official organ.

Smythe had attached a circular

May Name Chicago Lawyer Federal Judge CHICAGO (Spl.)—Chicago Jewry is expecting that Benjamin F. Goldstein, one of two attorneys who won $20,700,000 for Chicago telephone subscribers, will be named to fill the vacancy on the United States Court of Appeals bench. Endorsement of the Chicago attorney was carried directly to President Roosevelt last week when William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, visited the White House.

Chassidic Rites Draws Thousands

ROXBURY, Mass. (Spl.)—While more than 2,000 curiosity seekers, friends and relatives looked on, the scions of two famous Chassidic families were married here in a ceremony containing all the color and picturesqueness of elaborate European marriages of the mystic Jewish sect.

Naomi Zeitlich, daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. M. Zeitlich of Roxbury was married to Samuel Twersky, son of Grand Rabbi and Mrs. N. Twersky of Chelsea, Mass.

The large crowd time and again forced the halting of the ceremony as they pushed forward to stare as the Chassidim joined hands in gay dances and later bearded sages wearing caftans read the marriage contract.

The wedding lasted almost until daybreak.

WINS BERMUDA TRIP PROVIDENCE, R. I. (Spl.)—Mrs. Louis Forbes, of this city, has been awarded two tickets for a Bermuda cruise by the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women. The award was made to Mrs. Forbes for her work in the organization's milk depot campaign.

GET-TOGETHER SET On Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at 8:30 o'clock an intermediate boys' "get-together" will be held in Kirshbaum Center. An interesting speaker will address the group, an entertaining program will be presented, and refreshments will be served.

There will be no charge for Center members.

with the photograph of Governor Hoffman and a statement by New Jersey's chief executive, on an official leaflet of the Association of Republican Clubs to a copy of the letter he addressed to Rev. Charles E. Coughlin of Royal Oak, Mich., in which the charge is made that all Communists, not only in Russia but also in America and in Great Britain, are Jews.

Smythe urged Father Coughlin not to be afraid to speak out in his broadcasts because "the American people have at last awakened to the menace of Judaism and Communism and their close alliance."

He encouraged the radio priest by telling him that the only time he really got the proper support from the American people was last year "when you named the real money-changers in our midst—the Rothschilds, the Lehman Bros., Kuhn-Loeb, Goldman Sachs, Solomon Bros., the Baruchs, the Frankfurters, etc." Attached to both these circulars—the letter to Father Coughlin and the Hoffman statement—was also a copy of a letter that Smythe had received from Senator William E. Borah regarding the reorganization of the Republican Party—thus linking another prominent name with an anti-Jewish propaganda effort.

Beth El Sisterhood Lays Plans For Large Affair

Termed by members the largest affair ever undertaken in its history, the Beth El Zedeck Sisterhood has arranged an all-day affair for Sunday, Jan. 12.

Beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the vestry rooms of the temple, the affair will include a cake and candy booth, wheel of chance, fish pond, white elephant, and a Jitney Cafeteria. In addition a bingo game will be held, with a special surprise planned for the children.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. D. L. Sablosky, with Mrs. Ben Shalansky and Mrs. Philip Falender, as co-chairmen. Other committee heads are Mrs. L. W. Sagalowsky, Mrs. Louis Barnett, Mrs. Max Selig, Mrs. Ben Bliden, Miss Emma Gelman, Mrs. Morris Perk, Mrs. Lewis Levy, Mrs. H. Chalfe and Mrs. I. L. Needleman.

Admission is 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Ten valuable door prizes will be given away.

Schacht In Aid To Jews

BERLIN (JTA)—Efforts by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Reich minister of economics, to secure repeal of the ministry of the interior order to police not to renew permits for Jewish traveling salesmen, have so far proved unsuccessful, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learned authoritatively.

The order, issued Christmas Eve, was to go into effect January 1 and imperils the livelihood of an estimated thirty to forty thousand Jewish drummers.

Dr. Schacht, although he acted swiftly when appealed to by Jewish leaders, is believed to be powerless to effect repeal of the order.

Jewish circles here, voicing appreciation of Dr. Schacht's efforts, expressed doubt that he would be successful, citing the recent virtual confiscation for "socialization" purposes of the Simson munitions works in Thuringia as evidence of his steadily decreasing influence.

It is common knowledge here that Dr. Schacht strenuously opposed the Simson action.

Levine Works For Fort Wayne Center

FORT WAYNE, Ind., (Spl.)—In an effort to provide a cultural and social center for the young Jewish men of this region, a movement was inaugurated here Thursday night by Alec Levine, of Indianapolis, and Dr. N. L. Salon, president of the Fort Wayne Jewish Federation to secure funds for a new building to be known as the Jewish Youth Center.

Szold, Two Others Named By Nation

NEW YORK (JTA)—Henrietta Szold, woman Zionist leader, is listed on the honor roll for 1935 compiled by The Nation, Liberal weekly, for its Jan. 1 issue. Other Jews listed are Jo Mielziner and Clifford Odets. In addition, Jeremiah T. Mahoney is lauded for his efforts on behalf of the Berlin Olympics boycott.

The citation for Miss Szold follows: "Henrietta Szold, who at seventy-five years of age, after a crowded lifetime of work in behalf of the oppressed Jews of all countries, is head of the Youth Aliyah movement, which has already transferred almost a thousand German Jewish children to Palestine and settled them on the land."

Mr. Edward Cohn, 3360 North Meridian Street, has announced the engagement of his sister, Miss Adelaide Cohn, to Bernard Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stein, of Chicago, Ill.

Jews Settle In Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (JTA)—Spurred on by the premature arrival of a number of German Jewish refugees, the committee planning the settlement of exiles on the more than 1,000,000 acre tract ceded by the Ecuadorean Government has brought to a close over a year and a half of planning and is beginning actual construction of roads, building of homes and clearing of land.

In a statement to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, the Comité Internacional de Inmigración, which negotiated the project for the land, disclosed that a member of the special mission supervising the project is on his way to New York to establish contacts with individuals and organizations who have expressed interest in the project. He is bringing with him data from the mission's archives and samples of Ecuador's products.

It was also disclosed that the comite has received almost 50,000 acres of private land and offers of fertile haciendas for distribution among immigrants. Federico Paez, president of Ecuador, led the way by donating an extensive hacienda.

The comite reported that a representative of a large German group interested in emigrating to Ecuador was so enthusiastic after surveying the land that he decided to settle there himself and asked for a grant of land.

Other German refugees who have arrived here are being settled on privately-donated lands.

Convert Cemetery To Sports Field

SALONICA (JTA)—A decree by the ministry of public works last week permitted expropriation of the famous old Jewish cemetery in the heart of Salonica for conversion into an athletic field by the University of Salonica.

A joint meeting of the Jewish community and representatives of various religious groups decided to send a delegation to Governor Pallas to protest against the decision.

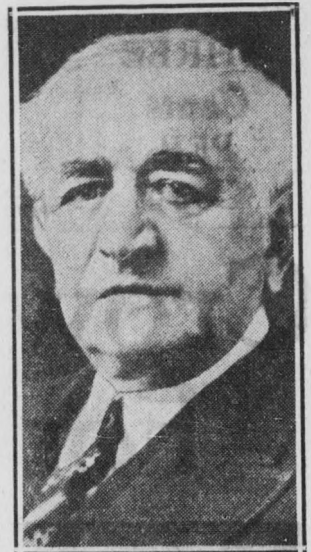

Rappaport On Program For Council Meeting

The Indianapolis Section National Council of Jewish Women, will hold their regular meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night, Jan. 6, in Kirshbaum Center. Mrs. Samuel Dorfman will preside.

This meeting is being held in the evening so that men and women can attend.

Albert Rappaport will give a recital entitled "The Jew in Song."

Biography Prepared

ADOLPH OCHS

Announcement has been made by members of the family of the late Adolph Ochs that Sinclair Lewis, famous novelist, is preparing the official biography of The New York Times' publisher.

Nazis Jail 2 Rabbis

BERLIN (JTA)—Rabbi Emil Bernhard Cohn, 55-year-old author, playwright and Zionist leader, has been transferred by the Gestapo, secret political police, to the notorious Columbia House, it was learned by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

Rabbi Cohn is accused of ridiculing the section of the Nuremberg laws which prohibit employment by Jews of "Aryan" women servants.

The rabbi was arrested at Koepenick, near Berlin, while addressing a Jewish meeting. When he referred to the Nuremberg laws, a Gestapo agent in the audience leaped to the platform, ordered the audience to disperse and arrested Rabbi Cohn.

Also being held in the Columbia House, on charges which haven't been made clear, is Rabbi Ignatz Malbaum, spiritual leader of Frankfort-am-Oder, who was arrested on Dec. 15 following an address he delivered at a Jewish meeting.

Rabbi Arrested

BERLIN (JTA)—The political police last week arrested Dr. Ignatz Malbaum, rabbi and distinguished spiritual leader of Frankfort-am-Oder. The arrest was made following an address made by Dr. Malbaum at a Jewish meeting.

Camp For Palestine Youth Planned Here

WASHINGTON (JTA)—A resolution to form a scientific training camp (hachshara) to aid the transfer of Jewish youths to Palestine was adopted by the eleventh national convention of Avukah, student Zionist organization, which closed at the Mayflower Hotel here last week.

Louisville To Be Host

The Southern Group Meeting of the Indiana-Kentucky State Association of B'nai B'rith Lodges, and the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Association have been planned for Louisville all day Sunday, January 19.

Stanley Garfein, member of the board of directors, and a past president of the Louisville lodge, is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

Expected to attend the meeting are delegates from the Indianapolis lodge, the Thisbee Lodge, of Evansville; the Gan Eden Lodge, of Terre Haute, and the Lexington, Ky., lodge.

In conjunction with the group and board meetings, the Louisville lodge will hold its annual inauguration banquet. Alex Berman will be installed as president for 1936.

Brown Lauds

A-J Papers

NEW YORK (Spl.)—Expressing the thanks of the ORT and of himself to the Anglo-Jewish press and Yiddish Press of America for its splendid cooperation with the $500,000 American ORT Campaign, David A. Brown, national chairman of the drive, paid tribute "to the power and strength of the Anglo-Jewish Press" in an open letter to the publishers that appears in the current issue of the "American ORT Journal."

Headed "A Thousand Thanks To You, Anglo-Jewish and Yiddish Press," the letter, which appears on the front page of the organization's official publication, thanks the publishers for presenting the ORT story to "the large number of Jewish families who daily or weekly receive their Yiddish or Anglo-Jewish papers."

"Without this cooperation," Mr. Brown continues, "we would not have been able to build up an understanding attitude on the part of American Jewry, toward our organization."

"As one who has had much to do with fund-raising activities of many organizations I have always realized the power and strength of the Jewish Press and have never failed to extend to them their share of credit."

"I sometimes wonder, though," he said, "if the Jews in those cities that have an Anglo-Jewish newspaper appreciate their debt to it for the important part it plays in the American Jewish scene."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Thinks Wan Vets Should Be Disbanded

To the Editor:

In reply to Harry N. Shaffer's letter justifying the Jewish War Veterans, I would like to take issue concerning his statement that the organization was started to fight the battle of the Jewish race. If the members wish to participate in this world battle, there are many ways to do so without segregating a group of men who are not only free, but welcome to join similar organizations where religion or race is no restriction.

This reader refuses to admit that a group of men, organized simply because they were soldiers, can claim credit for more prestige than any other group, organized for any other purpose. In other words, why should an ex-soldier be respected in a controversy more than a business man who happens to belong to any of the other organizations named by Mr. Shaffer.

Therefore, why can a group of these men, segregated from other veterans of other groups, do more good in a body set apart, than they can in any other organization set up by Jewish men because they are excluded from so-called non-sectarian bodies. Moreover, it seems to me that these men can better gain the ear of the people they wish to reach when they are honored members of groups open to all—both the Jews and non-Jews.

To put all this simply, I agree with Rabbi Friedman in saying that regardless of the good work done, it would have been better if these men had not voluntarily exiled themselves from the organizations in which they would be in a position to show their worth outside their own race.

Donkeys, Camels Discarded As Railroads Prosper

JERUSALEM (JTA)—Palestine, land of the camel and the donkey, is taking rapidly to its railroads. The administration report of Palestine Railways reveals that Palestine's 325 miles of track have had the busiest year in their short history.

Net receipts of the system increased almost $500,000 over the previous year's figure of $725,000, the report showed. Passenger traffic receipts showed an increase of 30 per cent, goods traffic 37 per cent, and miscellaneous traffic receipts 23 per cent.

In the past year 2,353,365 passengers rode the Palestine railways, including tourists, an increase of 843,487 over the previous year. A total of 1,022,288 tons of freight were carried, an increase of 156,366.

Refuses Students, Then Lauds Them

BUDAPEST, Hungary (Spl.)—The paradoxical pride of the press of Hungary over the action of Jewish medical students studying at Bologna University in Italy is being commented on here because the students were prevented from entering Hungarian universities by numerous anti-Jewish clauses.

The Hungarian students, according to a message from Rome, asked Il Duce's permission to join Italy's Abyssinian forces to repay Italy for the hospitality shown them in Italian universities. The Hungarian press has published extensive eulogies of the students.

When Torah Ornaments Are Used To Purchase Bullets, Then Peace Proponents Should Despair

If His Holiness, the Pope, has come in for any censure for his alleged failure to prosecute actively peace between Italy and Abyssinia, and if various priests throughout the world who have given their approbation to Italy's aggrandizement in Ethiopia have been held up to public disdain, then no less should the rabbis of Italy be subject to public strictures for their enthusiastic espousal of Italy's African conquests.

The latest episode of the Italian Jews' eagerness for war comes not from patriotic Jews who could hardly be expected to turn traitorous to the land of their abode, but from that sacred home of peace, the synagogue. Profaning the mission of peace of the Jew, Italian synagogues are sending the very crowns embellishing their Torahs, the Scrolls of the Law, to the Italian War Fund.

If individual Jews yield their wedding rings, they are as bad as their fellow countrymen. If the Baroness Adelaide de Rothschild's daughter-in-law, Baroness Raymond Franchetti, gives to the fund a valuable gold star once presented to her late husband by an Abyssinian prince, that is deplorable too. But when rabbis countenance the purchase of death with ornaments that formerly graced the Torah, then indeed have proponents of world peace ample cause for despair.

Problems

By SAMUEL S. MARKUN

Small Towners Perplexed By Unfriendliness In City

Dear Mr. Markun:

Reared in a small town, I spent most of my time with Gentile friends as there were no other Jewish families there. When we later moved to a larger town, I found that I was only tolerated by the Gentiles I tried to befriend, and looked down upon by the Jewish element. Naturally, I am lonely as I have only a few real friends, all non-Jewish. They were quicker to accept me than the Jews were. But I would like to become more friendly to those of my own race. If the fault lies with me, can you tell me what it is?

J.E.N.

New York, N. Y.

Dear J. E. N.:

There is no fault at all, but the solution does lie with you. Having lived in a town where there probably was no sign of anti-Semitism or segregation, you have not been made to realize that such a thing exists. Unfortunately, it usually does exist in a town inhabited by Jews. If you were able to have yourself accepted in the first town and managed to make some true friends in the second, I feel certain that a little concentration on the reactions of those with whom you are thrown in contact, will bring you out of your dilemma.

You should be especially careful of some of the things you say to the Jewish people with whom you associate. Remember, they have been subject to certain "tolerances," as you call them, so long that similar remarks from one of their own race are especially hateful.

Heard Man Say Bring Hitler Here, Is Worried

While in a restaurant in Jeffersonville, I heard a man denounce the Jews, saying that Hitler's methods should be used here in America. The reason, it seems, was that a certain Jewish factory owner had closed a striking mill and put quite a few people out of work. I did not wish to approach this man as I became very angry, but I realize now that I should have done something about it. May I ask what it is I can do now, or what I should have done?

L.C.

Louisville, Ky.

Dear L. C.:

I agree with you in not speaking to the man if you were afraid of losing your temper but don't you think, with many similar problems to be faced every day, that all Jews should learn to face such problems with a clear head. The man probably made his remarks in a similar fit of temper and a little calm discussion would have made him admit that he cannot put the blame of a supposedly wrong act of one member of a race on he shoulders of the entire race.

This is not supposition. The method is being used by organizations, as well as individuals, every day. Simply convincing this one man of his fault will not solve the Jewish problem. But if every Jew should convince one non-Jew that a man is a man regardless of race, the problem would be negligible.
